

Easy-to-Maintain, Native Plant List for Attracting Pollinators Throughout the Season in the Catskill Region

compiled by Maraleen Manos-Jones, www.spiritofbutterflies.com

PLANTS

Agastache (anise hyssop), Anemone, Angelica, Asters, Azaleas
Black-eyed Susans, Blanket flower, Bleeding heart, Blueberries, Bronze fennel, Butterfly weed, (Asclepias tuberosa)
Cardinal flower, Clovers, Columbine, Coreopsis
Dame's rocket, Dandelions, Day lilies
Echinacea (coneflower)
Foxglove
Gloriosa daisy, Goldenrods, Grasses and Sedges, Hollyhocks, Joe Pye weed
Liatrus, (Blazing star), lupines
Mallows, Monarda, (Bee Balm), Milkweeds (common and swamp), Mountain Mint, Pearly Everlasting, Plantain
Queen Ann's Lace
Sedum, Shasta daisy, Sweet William, Sunflower (perennial)
Violets
Wild Blue Indigo

BUSHES

Elderberry
Holly
Lilac
New Jersey Tea
Spicebush, Sumac, Summer Sweet
Viburnum

TREES

Aspen, Birch, Cherry, Cottonwood, Dogwood, Hackberry, Hawthorn, Hickory, Hop, Hornbeam, Oak, Poplar, Redbud, Sassafras, Serviceberry, Walnut, White pine, Willow

VINES

Dutchman's Pipe, Honeysuckle, Trumpet Vine

SELF-SEEDING ANNUALS

Amaranth, Calendula, Cleome

Wildflower Seed Mixes Resource: <https://www.vermontwildflowerfarm.com/wildflower-seed-wildflower-mixes-by-region-northeast.html>